

The Story of the Good Samaritan

One day Jesus told this story.

There

was

a man

walking

down the road.

Suddenly

a

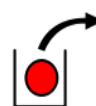

gang

of robbers

jumped

out

and

hit

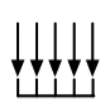

him

took

all

his

money.

The man

was

badly

hurt

lay

at

the side of the

road.

 First a  priest  walked  down the  road but  when he  saw the  man  he  crossed the  road and  didn't  stop.

 Next a  lawyer  came past but he  didn't  stop and  help

the man.

 At last a  Samaritan  walked  down the  road. He  stopped and  helped the  man. He  bandaged  his  cuts  and  gave him a  drink.

Then he put the man on his donkey and took him to a hotel and looked after him there. The next day he gave the owner some money and said, 'Please look after the man until I come back.'

Jesus told this story to teach us how we should be a good friend to everyone we meet.
